National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Docket No. 12]

IN THE MATTER OF PRESCRIBING DUE AND REASONABLE MAXIMUM DISCOUNTS OR PRICE ALLOWANCES BY CODE MEMBERS TO "DISTRIBUTORS" UNDER SECTION 4, PART II (H), OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937, AND ESTABLISHING RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE MAINTENANCE AND OBSERVANCE BY DISTRIBUTORS IN THE RESALE OF COAL, OF THE PRICES AND MARKETING RULES AND REGULATIONS TO BE ESTABLISHED BY THE COMMISSION

AN ORDER PROPOSING RULES AND REGULA-TIONS TO REQUIRE THE MAINTENANCE AND OBSERVANCE OF THE PRICES AND MARKET-ING RULES AND REGULATIONS BY DISTRIB-UTORS, AND NOTICE OF RESUMPTION OF HEARING

Whereas, A hearing in the aboveentitled proceeding was held before the National Bituminous Coal Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of April, 1938, to the 5th day of May, 1938, both dates inclusive, on which latter date said hearing was continued to the 27th day of June, 1938, and thereafter, on the 10th day of June, 1938, continued indefinitely, to be resumed upon further notice by the Commission, and

Whereas, Said hearing was continued for the purpose of receiving further evidence relating to the subject matter thereof, and to permit the cross-examination of certain witnesses who testified as to the cost of distributing coal, after the individual cost returns made by producers of bituminous coal had been made available for inspection, and

Whereas, Upon the resumption of said hearing the Commission will propose rules and regulations for the maintenance and observance by distributors in the resale of coal, of the prices and marketing rules and regulations to be established by the Commission, which proposed rules and regulations are attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof.

Now, therefore, Pursuant to the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs:

1. That the hearing in the above-entitled matter be resumed, and Notice is hereby given that the Commission will, on the 31st day of January, 1939, at the hour of 10 o'clock, a. m., in the Hearing Room of the Commission, Washington, D. C., resume said hearing for the purpose of receiving evidence relating to the aforesaid proposals, and for the purposes as set forth in the original Notice of Hearing: Provided, however, that the hearing relating to the maximum discounts or price allowances that may be made by code members to distributors will be set for a time and place to be later designated by the Commission.

2. That, at said hearing, the Commission will offer, as its proposals, rules and regulations designed to require the maintenance and observance of the prices and marketing rules and regulations by distributors, and all interested parties will be afforded an opportunity to present evidence relating to the propriety and reasonableness thereof, and such other evidence as properly comes within the scope of said hearing.

3. Findings and Conclusions of the Commission to be made upon a consideration of all of the evidence adduced in Docket No. 12, as to the rules and regulations for the maintenance and observance by distributors, in the resale of coal, of the prices and marketing rules and regulations to be established by the Commission, shall not be limited to the specific proposals herein made, but such proposals shall be subject to such modifications or enlargements that may be supported or warranted from a consideration of the entire record in this Docket.

4. That the Secretary of the Commission be and he is hereby directed to cause a copy of this Order and Notice, together with a copy of the attached proposals, to be published forthwith in the Federal Register, and to cause copies hereof, together with said proposals, to be mailed to the Consumers' Counsel, to the Secretary of each District Board, to each code member within the several districts and to each party who has entered an appearance herein, and to cause copies hereof, together with said proposals, to be made available for inspection by interested parties at the Office of the Secretary of the Commission, Washington, D. C., and at the office of each Statistical Bureau of the Commission.

By order of the Commission.
Dated at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of January, 1939.

Section 4, II (h):

The Commission shall, by order, prescribe due and reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances that may be made by code members to persons (whether or not code members), herein referred to as "distribu-tors", who purchase coal for resale and re-sell it in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots: and shall require the maintenance and observance by such persons, in the resale of such coal, of the prices and marketing rules and regulations established under this

The following practices with respect to coal (Sec. 4. II (i) Number 11 and Number 12) shall be unfair methods of competition and shall constitute violations of the code:

Section 4, II (i) No. 11:

Splitting or dividing commissions, brokers' fees, or brokerage discounts, or otherwise in any manner directly or indirectly using brokerage commissions or jobbers' arrangements or sales agencies for making discounts, allowances, or rebates, or prices other than those determined under this Act, to any in-dustrial consumer or to any retailers, or to others, whether of a like or different class.

Section 4, II (i) No. 12:

Selling to, or through, any broker, jobber, commission account, or sales agency, which is in fact or in effect an agency or an instrumentality of a retailer or an industrial consumer or of an organization of retailers or industrial consumers, whereby they or any of them secure either directly or indirectly a discount, dividend, allowance, or rebates, or a price other than that determined in the manner prescribed by this Act.

Section 4, II (i) No. 13-second paragraph:

It shall not be an unfair method of competition or a violation of the code or any requirement of this Act (1) to sell to or through any bona-fide and legitimate farmthrough any bona-nde and legitimate larmers' cooperative organization duly organized under the laws of any State, Territory, the District of Columbia, or the United States whether or not such organization grants rebates, discounts, patronage dividends, or other similar benefits to its members; (2) to sell through any intervening agency to any such cooperative organization; or (3) to pay or allow to any such cooperative organiza-tion or to any such intervening agency any discount, commission, rebate, or dividend ordinarily paid or allowed, or permitted by the code to be paid or allowed, to other pur-chasers for purchases in wholesale or middleman quantities.

Pursuant to the foregoing provisions of said Act, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby proposes the following rules and regulations for registration of "distributors" as defined in Section 4, Part II (h) of said Act:

- I. Meaning of terms—as used in these regulations:
- 1. The term "person" as used herein, includes individuals, firms, associations, partnerships, corporations, trusts, trustees, cooperatives, receivers and trustees in bankruptcy and in other legal proceedings, and any other recognized forms of business organizations.

- (d) If applicant is a partnership, the names and addresses of all partners interested therein; if a corporation or other organization, (1) the names and addresses of all officers, directors, and managers, specifying the shares of stock owned and the office held by each; (2) the names and addresses of stockholders individually owning more than 5% of the outstanding stock, the amount held by each, and also of any other persons indirectly or beneficially interested in the ownership of applicant; (3) the names and addresses of all other parties in interest, such as bondholders, noteholders, etc., where such information is in the possession of the applicant. If a cooperative organization, the number of members.
- (e) The total tonnage of bituminous coal handled by the applicant for the years 1937 and 1938, and the manner in which handled.
- (f) A statement of the applicant's affiliation, if any, with any coal producer, transporter, processor, distributor, retailer, or consumer of coal; showing the extent of ownership in or by affiliated companies, the nature of the affiliate's business and transactions with affiliate during the years 1937 and 1938.
- (g) A statement as to whether the applicant has since April 26, 1937 engaged, or now engages or intends to engage in the sale, resale or delivery of coal in less than cargo or railroad carload lots, and 11. "Resale," as herein applied to a the volume of such transactions since applicant during the years 1937 and 1938, giving the name and address of, and tonnage sold to, each person who received 5% or more of the tonnage handled and each person who received in excess of 19,000 net tons in each of said years, and in the case of a railroad, those receiving in excess of 500 net tons in each of said years, designating whether "on line" or "off line" tonnage.

II. Terms of "Agreement by Registered Distributor":

Each application must be accompanied by "Agreement by Registered Distributor" hereinafter set forth, properly signed and acknowledged:

- 1. On behalf of a corporation, by a principal officer of the corporation duly authorized to act.
- 2. On behalf of a partnership, by any partner.
- 3. On behalf of an individual, by the applicant or his attorney duly authorized to act.
- 4. In the case of any other form of business organization, by a person or persons legally authorized to execute an application on behalf of the applicant.

"Agreement by Registered Distributor":

The undersigned distributor agrees, upon being registered as a "Registered Distributor" by the Coal Commission for the purpose of qualifying to receive distributors' discounts established by the Coal Commission:

- (a) Not to accept or receive any distributor's discount in excess of that prescribed by the Coal Commission.
- (b) Not to sell, deliver, resell, or offer for sale any coal at a price less than the minimum or greater than the maximum established by the Coal Commission, except where authorized to do so by orders or established marketing rules and regulations of the Coal Commission.
- (c) Not to violate the provisions of Section 4, II (i) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 relating to "unfair methods of competition" as hereinafter set forth under "Miscellaneous Provisions Affecting Distributors and 'Unfair Methods of Competition'" of these rules: Provided, however, That it shall not be considered a violation of the provisions of said Section 4, II (i) for a registered distributor to resell coal to a registered farmers' cooperative organization distributor at · not less than the established minimum price for sale to a registered distributor.
  - (d) Not to accept or retain a distributor's discount on coal unless such coal is purchased for bona fide resale and is actually resold in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots; nor where the coal is resold to any person who owns such distributor or who financially or otherwise controls such distributor, except in a case where the Coal Commission has determined that such owner- its own motion, the Coal Commission ship or control is bona fide, is not estab- may investigate and determine whether lished primarily to secure an indirect a registered distributor has violated the business, his successor in interest or

Section 4 Part II (i) of the Act, as hereinafter set forth under "Miscellaneous Provisions Affecting Distributors and 'Unfair Methods of Competition'" of these rules.

- (e) To abide by the marketing rules and regulations from time to time established by the Coal Commission and all pertinent orders of the Coal Commission.
- (f) To furnish or cause to be furnished to the Coal Commission at any time upon its direction a copy of every resale contract or order, a copy of each invoice to distributor's vendee, together with a copy of each credit memorandum, and such other information concerning the sale and distribution of coal, the cost and profit of selling and the distributor's financial relations with affiliated producers and consumers as the Coal Commission may require.
- (g) Not to accept any distributor's discount on transactions wherein no service of value is rendered to the code member or where the transaction is entered into primarily for the purpose of enriching the distributor, and when except for the incidence of Section 4, II (h) of the Act, the consumer would purchase direct from a code member and the payment of a distributor's discount on such transaction would create unfair competition.

III. Certificate of Registration:

After receipt of any such application for registration as distributor, upon a determination by it (whether from the application or after hearing held for such purpose) that the applicant is a bona fide merchant, actively, regularly and continuously engaged in the business of purchasing coal and reselling the same in cargo or railroad carload lots, in substantial volume, that such business constitutes a major activity of applicant and that the applicant is, therefore, entitled to registration, and provided that the applicant agrees to maintain and observe the prices and marketing rules and regulations established by the Coal Commission and the Terms of "Agreement by Registered Distributor" herein provided, the Coal Commission shall approve such application and shall register such person as a registered distributor and shall issue to the applicant a certificate-of registration. The Coal Commission shall promptly notify each district board of such registration and shall publish from time to time a list of registered distributors, which list shall be amended from time to time as the Coal Commission may direct, to show additions, withdrawals or removals.

- IV. Penalties-Revocation and Suspension:
- 1. At any time upon complaint or upon

(h) A schedule of the coal handled by | price reduction, and is not within the | rules and regulations prescribed or orders prohibition of paragraphs 11 and 12 of made by the Coal Commission governing the resale of code members' coals by such registered distributor.

The registration of such distributor may be revoked, or, in the discretion of the Coal Commission, suspended for such period of time as it may deem proper. after hearing held upon reasonable notice and upon proof that such registered distributor has either failed or refused to comply with the requirements of the Act or Coal Commission orders or its marketing rules and regulations, or where such distributor has violated any of the Terms of "Agreement by Registered Distributor" herein provided.

- 2. Where registration is granted to a distributor upon its false or misleading statements or failure to state material facts affecting its application for registration, the Coal Commission may, after hearing held upon reasonable notice to such distributor, revoke such registration and any discounts paid during the effective period of such registration shall be recoverable by the code member vendor or vendors of such distributor.
- 3. Where the registration of a corporation, or its wholly-owned affiliate, is revoked or suspended, the affiliate of the offending distributor, whether parent company or subsidiary, may after hearing held upon reasonable notice be suspended by the Coal Commission for such period as it deems proper, upon satisfactory proof that either of such affiliated companies secured registration for the purpose of evading the Act or regulations adopted thereunder, or that the affiliate of the offending distributor is being used for the purpose of nullifying or rendering ineffective any penalty that has been imposed upon the offending distributor.
- 4. Upon the revocation or suspension of any registration the Coal Commission shall publish, for the information of code members, a notice of the removal of the name of such distributor from the list of registered distributors previously published by the Coal Commission and shall notify each District Board of such

V. Reinstatement after Suspension:

Where a registered distributor has been suspended by the Coal Commission for any period of time, he shall submit at least five days prior to the expiration of such suspension period to the Secretary of the Coal Commission an affidavit to the effect that during the period of his suspension, said distributor has neither directly nor indirectly transacted business as a registered distributor, nor received nor been promised any discount which registered distributors are entitled to receive by virtue of registration.

VI. Successors of Registered Distributors:

Upon the death of a registered distributor or sale or other disposal of his legal representative shall, within thirty days from the date of said death or disposal, apply to the Coal Commission for registration; otherwise the registration of such distributor shall expire.

Upon filing such application within the time above prescribed, the existing registration shall automatically continue until the application either be granted or denied by the Coal Commission.

Registration of Farmers' Cooperative Organization Distributors

- I. Any farmers' cooperative organization desiring registration under the Coal Commission as a farmers' cooperative organization distributor shall apply to the Coal Commission for registration and upon approval of its application shall be registered and designated by the Coal Commission as a "Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization Distributor."
- II. The application to be filed for registration as a farmers' cooperative organization distributor shall be duly verified and shall among other things set forth:
- A. The name of the applicant, the address of applicant's principal place of business (together with the address of each branch office, yard, dock, or other storage facility), date of organization, and the names and post office addresses of the officers and directors, or if unincorporated the names and addresses of the person or persons in the management and control of such organization.
- B. The form of organization (incorporated or unincorporated) of applicant's business with a reference to the law or laws under which such organization was formed and in accordance with which it carries on its business.
- C. A statement setting forth the territory in which the applicant operates or proposes to operate.
- D. A statement showing the amount of business handled by the applicant for its members and the amount of business, if any, handled for nonmembers in the years 1937 and 1938; also, the amount of bituminous coal purchased for resale and resold by applicant to its members and the amount, if any, sold to nonmembers, in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots in the calendar years 1937 and 1938; also, the amount of bituminous coal purchased and used or resold by applicant to its members in less than cargo or railroad carload lots, and the amount of bituminous coal, if any, purchased and resold by applicant to nonmembers in less than cargo or railroad carload lots.
- E. A certified copy of the articles of association or of incorporation of the applicant, including any amendments which may have been made thereto prior to date of application for registration.
- F. A certified copy of the current bylaws of the applicant, if any.
- G. A statement defining the purposes for which applicant's organization is formed and a statement that the applicant is conducting its business in conformity with the legal requirements of the laws under which it is formed.

- H. A financial statement of the applicant showing its financial condition as of January 1, 1939.
- III. Terms of "Agreement by Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization Distributor."

Each application must be accompanied by "Agreement by Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization Distributor," hereinafter set forth, properly signed and acknowledged:

- 1. If applicant is incorporated, by a principal officer of the corporation duly authorized to act.
- 2. If applicant is unincorporated, by a duly authorized agent.

"Agreement by Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization Distributor"

The undersigned farmers' cooperative organization distributor agrees, upon being registered as a "Registered Farmers' Cooperative Organization Distributor" by the Coal Commission for the purpose of qualifying to receive distributor's discounts established by the Coal Commission:

- (a) Not to accept or receive any distributor's discount in excess of that prescribed by the Coal Commission.
- (b) Not to sell, deliver, resell, or offer for sale any coal at a price less than the minimum or greater than the maximum established by the Coal Commission except where authorized to do so by orders or established marketing rules and regulations of the Coal Commission.
- (c) Not to violate the provisions of Section 4, II (i) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 relating to "unfair methods of competition" as hereinafter set forth under "Miscellaneous Provisions Affecting all Distributors and 'Unfair Methods of Competition'" of these rules: Provided, however, That in the case of a bona fide and legitimate farmers' cooperative organization duly organized under the laws of any State, Territory, the District of Columbia, or the United States, and otherwise qualified as a distributor within the meaning of Section 4, II (h) of the Act, it shall not be considered a violation of the provisions of Section 4, II (i) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, relating to "unfair methods of competition," for such farmers' cooperative organization to grant rebates. discounts, patronage dividends, or other similar benefits to its members, if the granting of such benefits is authorized by the law under which such organization is chartered.
- (d) Not to accept or retain a distributor's discount on coal unless such coal is purchased for bona fide resale and is actually resold in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots in conformity with the rules and regulations and orders of the Coal Commission.
- (e) To abide by the marketing rules and regulations from time to time established by the Coal Commission, and all pertinent orders of the Coal tributor upon its false or misleading Commission.

(f) To furnish to and file with the Coal Commission a cartified copy of any change or modification of applicant's articles of incorporation or association. and any change or modification in the by-laws governing applicant's business in case any such change or modification is made in the future after applicant has filed application for registration, and to furnish or cause to be furnished to the Coal Commission at any time upon its direction a copy of every resale contract or order, a copy of each invoice to distributor's vendee, together with a copy of each credit memorandum, and such other information as to sales of coal made by applicant as the Coal Commission may require.

IV. Certificate of Registration:

After receipt of any such application, the Coal Commission, upon a determination (whether from the application or after hearing held for such purpose) that the applicant is a bona fide and legitimate farmers' cooperative organization distributor, entitled to registration, and agrees to observe the prices and marketing rules and regulations established by the Coal Commission, shall approve such application and shall register such applicant as a registered farmers' cooperative organization distributor, and shall issue to the applicant a certificate of registration. The Coal Commission shall promptly notify each District Board of such registration and shall furnish from time to time a list of registered farmers' cooperative organization distributors, which list shall be amended from time to time as the Coal Commission may direct to show additions, withdrawals, or removals.

V. Penalties—Revocation and Suspen-

1. At any time upon complaint or upon its own motion, the Coal Commission may investigate and determine whether a registered farmers' cooperative organization distributor has violated the rules and regulations prescribed or orders made by the Coal Commission governing the resale of code members' coals by such registered farmers' cooperative organization distributor, or the terms of agreement by registered farmers' cooperative organization distributor.

The registration of such registered farmers' cooperative organization distributor may be revoked, or, in the discretion of the Coal Commission, suspended for such period of time as it may deem proper, after hearing held upon reasonable notice and upon proof that such registered distributor has either falled or refused to comply with the requirements of the Act, the Coal Commission orders or marketing rules and regulations, or the terms of agreement of registered farmers' cooperative organization distributor.

2. Where registration is granted to a farmers' cooperative organization disstatements or failure to state material tration, the Coal Commission may, after hearing held upon reasonable notice to such farmers' cooperative organization distributor, revoke such registration and any discounts paid during the effective period of such registration shall be recoverable by the code member vendor or vendors of such farmers' cooperative organization.

3. Upon the revocation or suspension of any registration, the Coal Commission shall publish a notice of the removal of the name of such farmers' cooperative organization distributor from the list of registered farmers' cooperative organization distributors previously published by the Coal Commission and shall notify each District Board of such action.

VI. Reinstatement after Suspension:

When a registered farmers' cooperative organization distributor has been suspended by the Coal Commission for any period of time, it shall submit at least five days prior to the expiration of such suspension period to the Secretary of the Coal Commission an affidavit to the effect that during the period of its suspension said farmers' cooperative organization distributor has neither directly nor indirectly transacted business as a registered farmers' cooperative organization distributor, nor received nor been promised any discount which registered farmers' cooperative organization distributors are entitled to receive by virtue of registration.

Limited Registration

I. Limited Registration Certificates: -

A distributor, whose application to the Coal Commission for registration as a registered distributor has not been approved by the Coal Commission upon Form No. ____, provided by the Coal Commission, may from time to time make application to the Coal Commission for a limited registration certificate to cover specific purchases of coal by the applicant and the resale thereof in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots. Such application shall be executed in triplicate and shall be submitted to the Coal Commission at Washington, D. C. for its approval and shall, among other things. set forth:

- (a) The name of the applicant and the name under which the business is cenducted.
- (b) The address of his principal place of business and the nature of his business.
- (c) The date on which applicant filed with the Coal Commission his application for registration as a registered distributor.
- (d) The name and address of the code member from whom the coal is to be purchased.
- (e) The name or number of the mine from which the coal is to be supplied, transaction.

- (f) The name of the customer to whom the applicant proposes to resell the coal, together with the destination of the coal, the method of conveyance, the use to which it is to be put, and the nature of the customer's business.
- (g) The proposed purchase price of the coal and the proposed resale price to the customer, both f. o. b. mine; also amount of discount to be allowed applicant.
- (h) A statement as to whether or not the applicant for a limited registration certificate has previously sold any coal to the customer named in the application, and, if so, the details of such sales made during the years 1937 and 1938, including date of sale, quantity of coal involved and period of delivery .-
- (i) A statement as to whether or not any officer, director, stockholder or employee of applicant or the applicant, himself, is related to the customer or any officer, director, stockholder or employee of the customer; and whether or not any officer, director, stockholder or employee of the applicant or the applicant, himself, owns any stock or has any other financial interest in the customer, Conversely, a statement as to whether the customer or any of its officers, directors, stockholders or employees own any stock in or have any financial connection with the business of the applicant.
- (j) A statement to the effect that on the particular transaction covered by the application the applicant will observe the minimum prices, the Marketing Rules and Regulations, the provisions relating to the "Unfair Methods of Competition," and all pertinent orders of the Coal Commission, then in effect.
- (k) A statement that applicant will not accept any distributor's discount on transactions wherein no service of value is rendered to the code member or where the transaction is entered into primarily for the purpose of enriching the distributor, and when except for the incidence of Section 4, II (h) of the Act, the consumer would purchase direct from a code member and the payment of a distributor's discount on such transaction would create unfair competition.

Provided further, That each application for a limited registration certificate shall be properly executed and verified:

- 1. On behalf of a corporation, by an officer of the corporation duly authorized to act.
- 2. On behalf of a partnership, by any partner.
- 3. On behalf of an individual, by the applicant or his attorney, duly empowered for that purpose.
- 4. In the case of any other form of business organization, by any person duly authorized to execute an application on behalf of applicant.

facts affecting its application for regis- | located, and the tonnage involved in the | by the Coal Commission with reasonable dispatch.

Upon a determination by the Coal Commission (whether from the application or after hearing held for such purpose) that the transaction covered by the application would constitute a legitimate and essential service to the code member in connection with the bona fide distribution of his coal and that it otherwise conforms to the requirements and intent of Section 4 II (h) of the Act, as well as to the Marketing Rules and Regulations and to the applicable orders of the Coal Commission at that time in effect, the Coal Commission may approve such application for a limited registration certificate.

In the event that such application is approved, two copies of the certificate shall be returned to the applicant, who shall transmit one copy to the code member from whom the coal is purchased, which copy shall be attached by such code member to the invoice covering the transaction and filed with the Statistical Bureau of the Coal Commission in the district wherein the shipping mine is located. The distributor shall file with such Statistical Bureau a copy of the invoice to his customer, attaching thereto the original of the limited registration certificate. Where the application has been denied, one copy thereof shall be retained by the Coal Commission for its file, another copy shall be sent to the appropriate Statistical Bureau of the Coal Commission, and the original shall be returned to the applicant.

II. Suspension of Limited Registered Distributor:

Where a distributor who receives a limited registration certificate violates the provisions of the Act or regulations and orders of the Coal Commission or falsely states or misrepresents a material fact in his application for such certificate, the Coal Commission may, after hearing held upon reasonable notice, suspend and bar the said offending-distributor from eligibility to apply for and obtain any such certificate enabling him to receive discounts from code members for such period of time as the Coal Commission. in its discretion, may deem proper.

Miscellaneous Provisions Affecting All Distributors and "Unfair Methods of Competition"

- I. Miscellaneous Provisions:
- 1. No distributor's discount shall be accepted by a distributor:
- (a) On coal purchased by such distributor for retailing by him.
- (b) On coal purchased by such distributor who is primarily engaged in the retailing of coal for resale to a person for retailing.

- 2. The adjustment of claims with purchasers of coal in such manner as to grant secret allowances, secret rebates, or secret concessions, or other price discrimination.
- 3. The prepayment of freight charges with intent to or having the effect of granting a discriminatory credit allow-
- 4. The granting in any form of adjustments, allowances, discounts, credits, or refunds to purchasers or sellers of coal, for the purposes or with the effect of altering retroactively a price previously agreed upon, in such manner as to create price discrimination.
- 5. The predating or postdating of any invoice or contract for the purchase or sale of coal, except to conform to a bonafide agreement for the purchase or sale entered into on the predate.
- 6. The payment or allowance in any form or by any device of rebates, refunds, credits, or unearned discounts, or the extension to certain purchasers of services or privileges not extended to all purchasers under like terms and conditions. or under similar circumstances.
- 7. The attempt to purchase business, or to obtain information concerning a competitor's business by concession, gifts, or bribes.
- 8. The intentional misrepresentation of any analysis or of analyses, or of sizes, tive statement by way of advertising, invoicing, or otherwise concerning the size. quality, character, nature, preparation, or origin of any coal bought, sold, or consigned.

- 9. The unauthorized use, whether in written or oral form, of trade-marks, trade names, slogans, or advertising matter already adopted by a competitor, or any deceptive approximation thereof.
- 10. Inducing or attempting to induce, by any means or device whatsoever, a breach of contract between a competitor and his customer during the term of such contract.
- 11. Splitting or dividing commissions, brokers' fees, or brokerage discounts, or otherwise in any manner directly or indirectly using brokerage commissions or jobbers' arrangements or sales agencles for making discounts, allowances, or rebates, or prices other than those determined under this Act, to any industrial consumer or to any retailers, or to others, whether of a like or different class.
- 12. Selling to, or through, any broker, jobber, commission account, or sales agency, which is in fact or in effect an agency or an instrumentality of a retailer or an industrial consumer or of an organization of retailers or industrial consumers, whereby they are any of them secure either directly or indirectly a discount, dividend, allowance, or rebates, or a price other than that determined in the manner prescribed by this Act.
- 13. Employing any person or appointing any sales agent, at a compensation obviously disproportionate to the ordinary value of the service or services rendered, and whose employment or appointment is made with the primary intention and purpose of securing preferment with a purchaser or purchasers of coal.

It shall not be an unfair method of competition or a violation of the code payment is computed for the farm under or any requirement of this Act (1) to sell to or through any bona-fide and legitimate farmers' cooperative organization duly organized under the laws of any State, Territory, the District of Columbia, or the United States whether or not such organization grants rebates, discounts, patronage dividends, or other similar benefits to its members; (2) to sell through any intervening agency any discount, commission, rebate, or dividend ordinarily paid or allowed, or permitted by the code to be paid or allowed, to other purchasers for purchases in wholesale or middleman quantities.
